

1st February 2007

Canterbury A continue to dominate the second division of the Kent League, with another two massive wins over Maidstone A whom they beat 10-0 and another over Ashford. John Walker had been drafted into the team in the absence of Peter Chapman. With only two more matches to play they look almost certain to get promoted to Division one for the first time in six years. Mick Eames continues his unbeaten run and Les Yu as evergreen as ever also uses his attacking game to good effect.

Bromley B retain their second position in the table after beating bottom of the table Folkestone 7-3. the match turned out to be extremely close with 5 out of the 10 rubbers being decided in the 5th game. Carol Homewood just lost to Folkestone's Trevor Hart 9-11, 7-11, 15-13, 11-5, 10-12 in the first rubber which set the standard for the day, as Adrian Foster took 5 games to overcome Folkestone's Bob Baker 7-11, 9-11, 12-10, 13-11, 11-3 in the second rubber. However Bromley's Amanda Alabaster managed to overcome the difficult style of Steve Bispham to win in straight sets 11-7, 11-6, 11-9. She also set Bromley on their winning ways with another 4 game win over Trevor Hart, winning 3-11, 11-6, 11-6, 13-11. While Adrian Foster remained unbeaten on the day it was nice to see Carol Homewood finally get her reward beating Bob Baker in another thriller 11-6, 11-5, 9-11, 3-11, 14-12.

N W Kent moved into third place after a convincing win over Ashford B, although Ron and Jim Brackley played extremely well with great support from Jon Fraser. While Keith Harris was outstanding for the Ashford side winning all 3 of his rubbers.
