Sittingbourne B continue to lead the 3rd Division of the Kent league although being held to a 5-5 draw against Tonbridge. John Coleman was again outstanding for Sittingbourne remaining unbeaten on the day, while Keith Adams and Paul Martin gave him great support. Perhaps the best win on the day was the match between John Coleman's fine attacking and counter hitting display to see him home in 5 games 6-11, 11-8, 10-12, 11-9, 11-6.

Maidstone B's match against Ashford C again turned out to be a thriller with 5 out of the 10 rubbers being decided in the 5th game. Maidstone's Jill Shipton beat Ashford's Tom Richardson in probably the best rubber of the afternoons play, winning 13-11, 8-11, 8-11, 11-4, 13-11. Jill also gave Maidstone a fine start beating Ray Quinn 11-8, 11-7, 11-7 in the first rubber. Jim Bradford was also in fine form beating all three of his opponents. David Twiddy played his first Kent League match for Ashford beating Jill Shipton in 5 games 8-11, 11-8, 11-3, 9-11, 11-5 and a straight sets win over Colin Creed.
