

LEWIS GRAY SELECTED FOR CADET 6 NATIONS

Lewis Gray, the new national under 14 boys' champion from Benenden, has been chosen to represent England in the prestigious 6 (European) Nations Cadet (under 15) Competition at Lilleshall National Sports Centre, Shropshire from 19th - 22nd June. The 14 year old Angleley School, Cranbrook pupil, a member of the Weald Table Tennis Club, will be competing against the top age group players of France, Sweden, Germany, Holland and Denmark. He has just returned from a weekend's England squad training at Lilleshall.

The English squad for the 6 Nations will be:

Boys: Sean Cullen (Derbyshire), Zak Zilesnick (Middlesex), Lewis Gray (Kent) and Daniel Lowe (Derbyshire).

Girls: Martha Travis (Cornwell), Lucy Davidson (Derbyshire), Tin Tin Ho (Middlesex) and Natalie Slater (Staffordshire).

Coaches: Alan Cooke, Alex Perry, Carole Moore, Paul Whiting and Steen Hansen.
