

ENGLAND SELECTION FOR LEWIS GRAY

Two members of the Weald TT Club based at Angley School, Cranbrook, have been selected to represent England abroad in May.

Lewis Gray, 15, from Benenden, a pupil of Angley School, who recently became national cadet (under 15) boys' doubles champion and narrowly lost in the singles final, is to represent his country in the Stiga Cadet 6 (European) Nations Tournament in Koping, near Stockholm, Sweden, from 22nd – 24th May 2009.

Yolanda King, 14, a pupil of St Bede's School, Hailsham, who has risen to no.8 junior (under 18) in the England rankings (she is also no.3 cadet girl) after winning junior open tournaments at Derby and Cheltenham, has been selected for the Slovakia Junior Open in Bratislava, from 21st – 24th May, and to train in the national Slovakian Camp from the 16th – 20th May.
