

WEALD CLUB WELL REPRESENTED IN NEW YEAR NATIONAL RANKINGS

Yolanda King, 15, the English National Junior Champion and a pupil of St Bede's School, Hailsham, moves up one place to no.4 in the new England Junior (under 18) girls' ranking listing, swapping places with Melissa Wright (Yorkshire). Meanwhile her Weald Club, Cranbrook colleague, 16 year old Angley School pupil Lewis Gray from Benenden retains his no. 4 junior boys' position.

Helshan Weerasinghe, a pupil of The Judd School, Tonbridge, who regularly trains at the SE Performance Centre at Angley School, holds on to his top position in the boys' under 13 list. Fellow Performance Centre members Jack Bennett and Dan Lawrence rise in the under 13 rankings, Bennett from Polegate, East Sussex going up from 11 to no.7, and Lawrence from Tonbridge, who is also a member of the Weald Club, moving from 13 to no.9.

Weerasinghe drops one place to no.5 in the cadet (under 15) boys' rankings, being displaced at no.4 by Ross Wilson of the Howard Club, Gillingham.